

BIMUN

MÉXICO 2025

DELEGATES HANDBOOK

Coexistence Code

- Always keep a diplomatic posture
- All communication between the delegates and the chair will be via page.
- In the case of any kind of emergency, the delegates should send a message to their faculties so they can notify the Organizing Committee.
- Each delegate should wear the badge with the name as "country / company ".
- Participation in the committee can be requested by lifting your placard with the name of your delegation

Women's Dress Code

- Pants
- Skirts or dresses below the knee
- Formal shirts or blouses

- Jeans
- Short skirts and dresses
- Sleeveless blouses or deep neckline
- T-shirts or crop tops
- Shorts
- Sweatshirts

Men's Dress Code

- Bowtie or tie (mandatory)
- Suit jacket (mandatory)
- Dress pants
- Dress shirt

- Jeans
- Shorts
- Polo or short sleeve shirts
- T-shirts or crop tops
- Sweatshirts

Important Points and Motions

Point of...

Motion to...

Parliamentary inquiry	Request any type of information regarding the topic.
Personal privilege	Request any personal need to the chair, to be added to the speaker's list or to open a brief preamble.
Order	Point out any errors in the protocol made by the chair or other delegates.
Relevance	When the debate is not relevant to the topic.

Open the session	After taking attendance, the session will be opened.
Open the speaker's list	When a delegate wants to open a speakers' list is to formally present the position of the country.
Open a Moderated Caucus	Start debating more fluidly about the topic and its possible solutions.
Open a Simple Caucus	When the proposals are already established, the delegations will need to get together to start making a worksheet and possible resolution paper.

Vocabulary NOT Recognized by the UN

Money	Economic Resources
Killing	Execute
War	Armed Conflicts
Poor	No resources
Under-developed	Low resources

Speakers' List

It is the time in which the delegates present the position of their country for the established time.

I yield my time to...

- The chair
- Questions and comments
- Another delegate

Delegates the floor is open, is there any motion in the floor?

Motion to open the speaker's list.

It's in order delegate, with what time?

The time that the chair considers.

The chair considers that (30 seconds to 3 minutes) would be in order. Would you like to reestablish?

Motion to open the speaker's list with time of (30 seconds to 3 minutes).

Moderated Caucus

5 to 35
minutes.

It is the prolonged time of continuous debate where delegates remain seated in their place and when a delegate wants to speak he/she has to raise his/her placard.

If you want to extend the time of the moderated caucus, the time will have to be one second less than the previous time.

Delegates the floor is open, is there any motion in the floor?

Motion to open a moderated caucus.

It's in order delegate, for what time?

The time that the chair considers.

The chair considers that (5 to 35 minutes) would be in order. Would you like to reestablish?

Motion to open a moderated caucus with the time of (5 to 35 minutes).

Simple Caucus

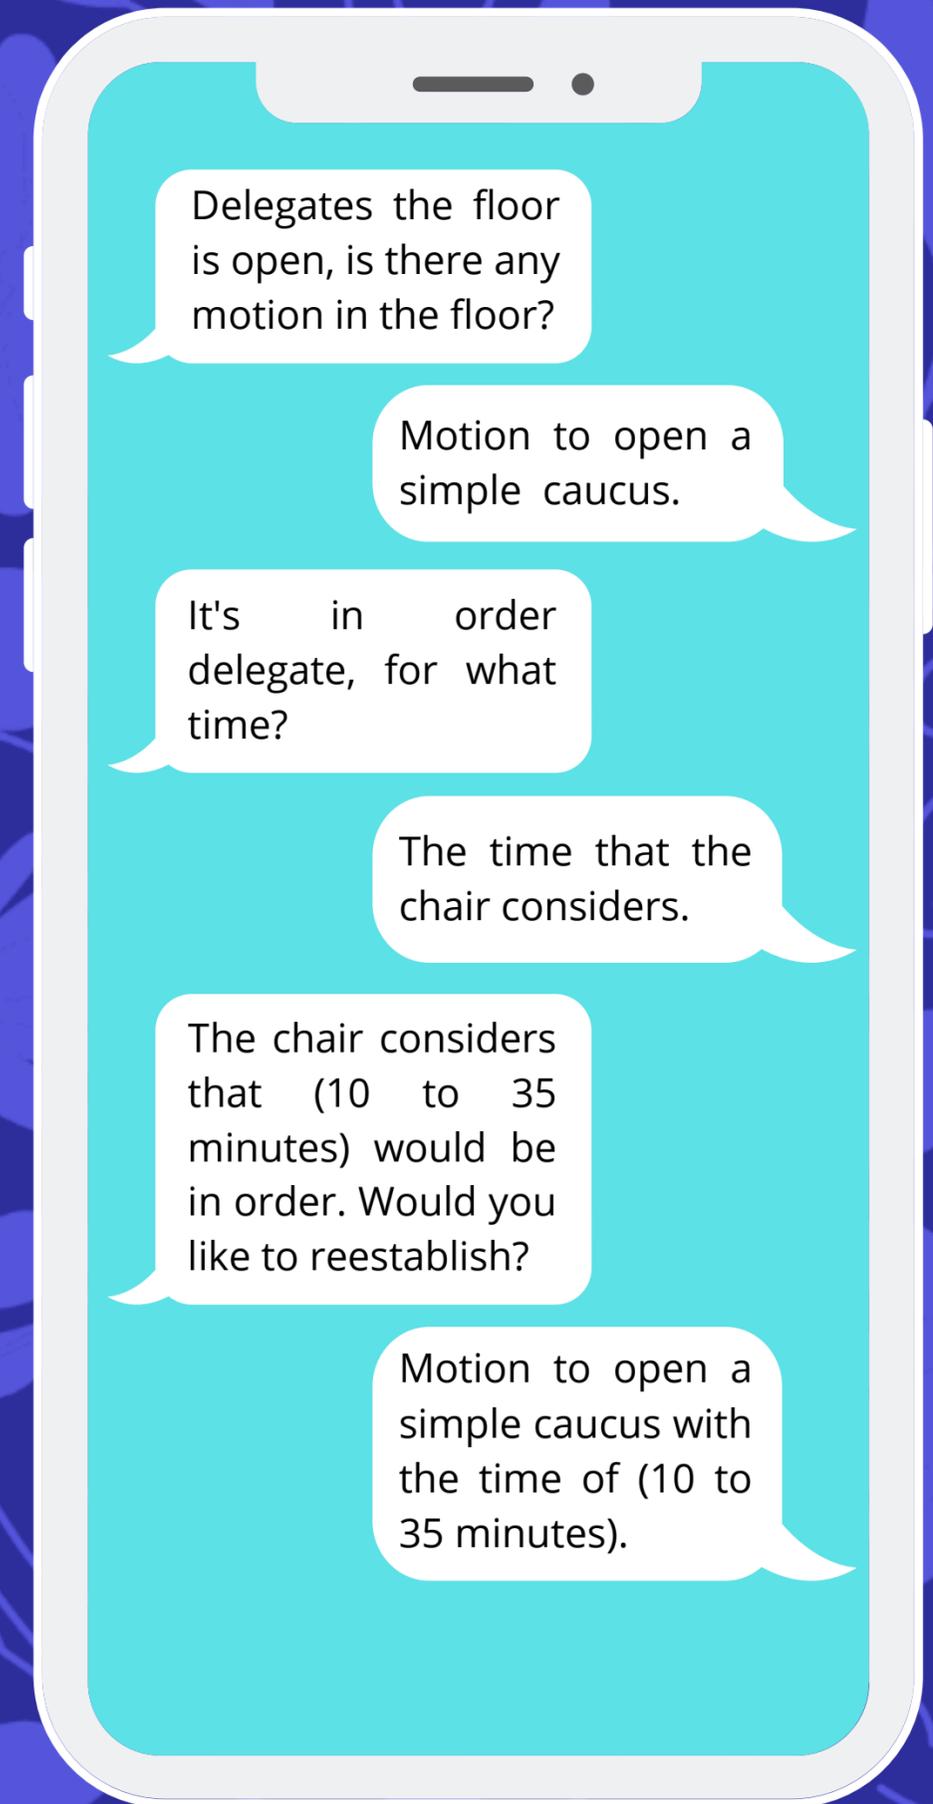

10 to 35
minutes.

It is the prolonged time where delegates meet informally to make their possible resolution sheet. It is usually 20 to 25 minutes.

If you want to extend the time of the simple caucus, the time will have to be one second less than the previous time.

Preambulatory Clauses

- They are used in the introduction.
- They have to be written in italics.
- At the end of each one there has to be a coma.
- The minimum is 4.
- They cannot be repeated.

Acknowledging

Acting

Affirming

Alarmed by

Anxious

Bearing in mind

Believing

Cognizant

Concerned

Confident

Declaring

Deeply concerned

Deploring

Emphasizing

Expressing appreciation

Further recalling

Guided by

Having adopted

Having considered further

Taking into consideration

Operative Clauses

-
- They are used in the proposals.
 - They have to be underlined.
 - At the end of each one there has to be a semicolon.
 - The minimum is 6.
 - They cannot be repeated.

Approves	Expresses its appreciation
Authorizes	Further proclaims
Calls	Further recommends
Calls for	Has resolved
Calls upon	Instructs
Commends	Introduces
Designates	Invites
Directs	Notes
Emphasizes	Notes with satisfaction
Encourages	Welcomes